Florida's Statewide Regional Evacuation Study (SRES)

FLORIDA DEPARTMENT OF TRANSPORTATION

Greetings From:

Stephanie C. Kopelousos, Secretary
Florida Department of Transportation

Florida's Statewide Regional Evacuation Study (SRES)

- FDOT was a partner in reviewing and revising the transportation methodology.
- The FDOT endorses use of a model compatible with FDOT models currently in use.
- Particularly Models that further existing models as this one has.

Transportation Interface for Modeling Evacuations

- FDEM has already given FDOT use of this model for Turnpike simulations.
- The FDOT sees the value in use of the TIME model in estimating impacts on evacuation routes and times when reviewing growth and endorses the methodology.
